Indian Police Open Fire On Bombay Rioters

3 Days Of Violence Leave 10 Dead; Nehru Target Of Disorders

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Police opened fire again today on waves of rioters protesting Prime Minister Nehru's plan to sever this west coast metropolis from Bombay State. At least four of the demonstrators were killed, bringing the death toll in three days of violence to 10 in Bombay State.

Indian army units were ordered to stand by and a 24-hour curfew was clamped on the big industrial sector of the city.

The rioters held virtual control of the factory area until police and special armed units drove them out with shots, tear gas and club charges. Scores were injured and hundreds arrested.

The mob, which demanded inclusion of Bombay in a new Marathi-speaking state, set fires, felled trees to barricade highways and hurled stones at passing trains, buses and cars.

At least 300,000 workers heeded a leftist call for a general strike. Downtown Bombay was deserted, with business virtually at a standstill. Shops were looted.

The rioters' chief target today was Bombay Chief Minister Morarji Desai, whose effigy they burned at one railway station and hanged at another point.

THOUSANDS carried placards yesterday proclaiming "death to Nehru!" and hung garlands of old shoes over his pictures, a sign of contempt in India.

At noon today city fire brigade had answered 49 calls in 14 hours, but no big buildings were reported damaged.

Seeking to end the strike, police arrested S. A. Dange, leading Indian Communist and vice president of the Red-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions.

Most foreign visitors were safe inside police barricades, which kept the mobs out of the heart of the city.

Although the roaming rioters made communications difficult, reports indicated the violence was spreading to Poona and other centers in the state. A night curfew was proclaimed for the whole Bombay area, 250 miles south of Bombay.

The violence and today's strike protested extension to Bombay of the Nehru government's plan for reorganizing state boundaries in accordance with the distribution of the country's dozen major languages.

The central government announced Monday night that Bombay state would be split between the Gujaratis, who speak Mohandas Gandhi's tongue, and the Marathas, who speak Marathi.

The city of Bombay, whose population is divided about equally between the two language groups, is to be a separate state under direct administration from New Delhi.

Marathi-speaking demonstrators launched the campaign of violence, demanding that the city be the capital of their state.

In the similar case tried before Judge John P. Case and a petit jury Wednesday was that of William Richard Hunter of Columbus, against Donald Eugene Howell of Coshocton, for $25,000 damages.

The suit was based on a traffic accident on Route 3, seven miles northeast of Washington C. H., March 11, 1953, in which Howell's car is alleged to have suddenly crossed the center line in front of the Hunter's car, resulting in a head-on crash in which Hunter claims he was injured "seriously and permanently."

Investigators at the time said Howell told them he had fallen asleep at the wheel.

Hunter is represented by Reed M. Winegardner, city, and Collins Gundy Lane and Richard Huggard of Columbus.

Howell had no attorney and did not appear in court in his own behalf.

The jury seated in the case was composed of: Ethel L. Wilson, Wilbur Rapp, Elmo Purdom, Clark Sheppard, Muriel J. Hays, Donald L. Lange, Orville Oty, Hazel Hicks, Millard H. Weidinger, Frank E. Coe, Charles M. Smith and Dorcas Holdren.

In the similar case tried before Judge Case and a different jury Tuesday, Doris L. Winegardner sought $5,000 damages from Charles L. Mustard, who was without counsel, and absent from the hearing most of the time. The jury awarded Mrs. Winegardner $2,000 damages.

After hearing the testimony of Miss Christine Evans, Dr. Thomas J. Hancock and Sheriff Orland Hays in the Hunter-Howell case Wednesday, court adjourned until 1 P. M.

Boy Drives Off In Diesel Engine

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ten-year-old Richard Wynn, who said he "just wanted to go," drove off in a Pennsylvania Railroad switch engine last night while its two operators were eating nearby.

Crewmen A. J. Frecko and William S. Richardson saw their 225-ton diesel engine rumbling off with the 80-pound boy at the throttle and gave chase.

The pursuit ended about 1,000 feet away when the engine ran into a parked locomotive and stopped with no damage to either engine. The boy tried to flee but was caught after he lost a shoe.

Sale of TB Seals Tops $5,000 Goal

Representatives Of Memorial Hospital Told Of Plan For X-Rays Of New Patients

The 1955 Christmas Seal sale has topped $5,000, the board of directors of the county TB and Health Association revealed at Tuesday evening's meeting.

The latest count of contributions, taken just before the board meeting, showed a total of $5,070.80—well over the $5,000 goal the Association had set.

A highlight of the meeting was a preliminary conference with members of the board and staff of Fayette Memorial Hospital on the possibility of setting up a program of X-raying all patients on their admission to the hospital.

Everyone agreed that the program could not be set up at present. "Something as big as that, you may have to wait years for," said Mrs. Jan Geisenhof, executive-secretary of the Association.

"The only thing that could be done at the present time is to consider this along with other programs of expansion with which we are faced," said George Pensyl, president of the hospital board.

"That expansion," he added, "is inevitable."

Hospital representatives at the meeting included Miss Christine Evans, the administrator; Pensyl; and three staff members, Dr. Byers Shaw, Dr. Marvin Roszmann and Dr. Thomas J. Hancock.

THE PRESIDENT of the county Association, Miss Frances White, said she was "more than pleased" at the response to the sale of Christmas seals.

"I feel so good to think the people are supporting the program the way they are," she said.

The $5,070 total received so far in the 1955 seal drive is nearly $500 ahead of the amount raised at this time last year, she announced. The number of contributors is up by 370 over last year, too, she pointed out.

Actually, the sale is not yet over, though the Association's goal has been passed. "We can use every penny," commented Mrs. Geisenhof.

Mrs. Geisenhof reported at the meeting that 2,586 "reminders" had been sent out, though in some cases reminders may have been sent to persons whose contributions have been sent in recently.

"In those cases, the reminder will serve as a 'thank you,'" she said. "We owe thanks to everyone who gave to help us carry on an increasingly constructive program of TB control here."

Members of the committee are Clyde Cramer, chairman; Clifford Hughes and Dustin Gorton.

Members of the board at the meeting were Miss White, Grubbs, Hughes, Miss Mary Frances Snider, Robert Olinger, Loren Hynes, Robert Angus, Eldon Long, Leonard Miller and Warren Brannon.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Geisenhof and Miss White read letters of appreciation from the board of trustees of Mt. Logan Sanatorium and from patients at the sanatorium. The letters spoke of "the wonderful work" done for the patients during the holiday season.

Jet Fighters Collide High Above Troy

TROY, Ohio (AP)—Two Air Force jet fighters—screaming past each other in simulated radar-guided attacks—crashed seven miles above earth last night.

One pilot, Capt. B. E. Thayer, 29, apparently ejected himself from his disabled craft and parachuted safely to earth. The other, First Lt. J. J. Schulte, 27, was killed. His badly mutilated body was found near the wreckage of his plane.

Thayer himself wasn't sure what had happened. He remembered the impact, then apparently blacked out and "woke up" on the ground. Air Force officials said. The first thing he did was to go to a nearby farm house and call his wife to let her know he was safe.

The crash was witnessed by a Ground Observer Corpsman from his Troy post. In the semi-darkness of twilight he watched the two F86D fighters collide, then fall about two miles apart of each other.

Both planes were based at Wright - Patterson AFB, Dayton, and were part of the 56th Fighter Interceptor Squadron.

Base officials said shortly after the pilots took off on a routine training mission, radar observers lost track of them.

The crash sent plane debris flying over a five-mile area southeast of here. The Air Force said 24 three-inch rockets, which can explode on the slightest touch, also were scattered in the area.

Stuck-In-Mud Boy Irked Only By Dog

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It took five firemen to pull Mark Paulsen out of the mud.

The 13-year-old junior high school pupil was walking his dog, Junior, last night when he attempted to cross a mud-slide caused by heavy rains.

He plunged in to his waist. And he couldn't get out. Someone heard Mark shout and called police. And they called the fire department.

It took five firemen 40 minutes to dig the boy out.

Mark was unharmed, but Junior was in disgrace.

"I tried to send him for help," said Mark. "He just stood around and looked stupid."

Gasoline-Laden Ship's Captain Among Missing

CITIES SERVICE CO. Spokesman Says Vessel Assigned Crew Of 41

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP)—Cities Service Oil Co. workers today battled swirling flames and choking smoke that may conceal the bodies of at least 16 seamen in a blazing tanker.

Loaded with a full cargo of 130,000 barrels of gasoline, kerosene and fuel oil, the tanker Salem Maritime exploded last night.

A crew of 41 was believed assigned to the vessel. Cities Service officials did not know how many were on board at the time.

Firefighters picked up pieces of three bodies this morning. St. Patrick's Hospital here treated eight seamen, one in serious condition. A Cities Service worker also was burned seriously.

A spokesman for Cities Service, which owned the tanker, estimated the missing at 20. A seaman, who had been on board before the explosion, put the figure at 16.

THE EXACT number of missing was unknown because company officials said it would be difficult to estimate how many men were on leave.

Berlin H. Richerson of Pensacola, Fla., deck maintenance man for the ship, said at least 16 of the 41 who signed on for the trip were reported safe.

The ship's captain, identified by crew members as John Rugling of Milton, Mass., was among those missing. Some of the crew members said the captain spelled his name Rugman.

Spokesmen for the company said only three men went through the first aid department and only one of them was hospitalized. All three were picked up by the tug Cold Calcasieu River by the tug Sea B.

Crewman John Klepadlo of Avoca, Pa., one of those rescued by the tug, said he was standing on the fantail of the ship with two other men, but was unable to give any account of them after the blast.

Klepadlo was quoted as saying, "Anybody who was on that ship after I left it just won't be around to talk about it."

No cause was given for the explosion. The tanker, loading in three holds at the rate of 20,000 barrels per hour, had been loading for more than six hours and was almost full when the explosion tore the vessel asunder and left it a flaming hulk.

No damage estimate was available on the tanker, which drifted toward the middle of the river as firefighters battled the blaze.

Long Machine Shows Power In Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Former Gov. Earl Long stormed down the comeback trail to landslide victory in the Louisiana governor's race today, leaving the administration of pro-Eisenhower Gov. Robert Kennon in the dust.

Mayor deLesseps Morrison of New Orleans, the only candidate in the five-man field in the Democratic primary who could have forced the race into a Feb. 21 runoff, conceded at 2 a. m.

Building his lead constantly as late rural returns trickled in, the 60-year-old Long rolled toward the majority vote needed to avoid a runoff with the second-placer.

Unofficial returns from 1,725 of the state's 2,039 precincts showed: Francis Grevenberg 50,710 Earl Long 340,702 James McLemore 38,843 deLesseps Morrison 159,105 Fred Preaux 84,473.

Long, uncle of Sen. Russell Long (D-La.) and brother of Rep. George Long (D-La.), drew 51.5 per cent of the votes counted so far.

THE REPUBLICANS did not hold the primary to nominate a governor. Thus Long's victory assured him an unprecedented third stay in the 45-room mansion that his brother Huey built.

Ohio Senate Panel Studies Capital Improvements Bill

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Senate Finance Committee today took up an emergency bill providing $37 million for capital improvements.

The Senate referred the measure to committee after the House passed it, 114-7, last night. Final Senate action is expected today, the third day of the Legislature's special session.

The bill includes a compromise allocation of $7 million from the anticipated state surplus for school buildings in needy districts.

The Senate earlier had passed a bill providing for an extra penny-a-pack tax on cigarettes, effective March 5. The tax, which boosts the state's total to 3 cents on a package of cigarettes, will be used to retire a $150 million bond issue for public buildings.

The House passed the cigarette tax bill Monday.

The bond issue, approved by voters last November, would launch the Legislature's long-range state building program.

Lawmakers Monday completed approval of emergency bills setting up mechanics for issuing the bonds and authorizing the sale of the first $30 million.

Also included in these acts were authorization to borrow $5 million from the state surplus to get the construction program rolling immediately.

The Legislature has yet to complete final action on an amendment to an appropriation bill allocating the $30 million.

The amendment, adopted yesterday by the House Finance Committee, would split the $30 million on a 50-50 basis between mental and penal institutions and six state universities.

Under the bond issue law, only $30 million can be spent in any one year.

Poor school districts would get $7 million from the state treasury surplus. Districts eligible would have a per-pupil real estate tax valuation of $6,000 or less.

Both the Ohio Education Assn. and the new state board of education are opposed to the eligibility requirement.

The House Finance Committee included in the appropriation measure a pledge that schools would get at least $10 million next year. Lawmakers differed in opinion whether this was a definite grant.

Meanwhile, it was learned that appropriations to needy school districts would make Ohio eligible for federal school aid.

The Ohio White House Conference Committee is on record against any federal grants to schools.

R. M. Eymann, state superintendent of public instruction, gave no figures in divulging that Ohio would be eligible for federal school funds because of the Legislature's appropriations.

The U. S. Welfare Department has announced that Ohio is eligible for $8,249,000, if Congress approved the school aid plan. Ohio would have to match that figure with $12,144,000 for school construction.

The Legislature has indicated, through the proposed $7 million school grant from the treasury surplus and the $10 million promised for next year, that matching funds would be met.

Firefighters picked up pieces of three bodies this morning. St. Patrick's Hospital here treated eight seamen, one in serious condition. A Cities Service worker also was burned seriously.

A spokesman for Cities Service, which owned the tanker, estimated the missing at 20. A seaman, who had been on board before the explosion, put the figure at 16.

THE EXACT number of missing was unknown because company officials said it would be difficult to estimate how many men were on leave.

Berlin H. Richerson of Pensacola, Fla., deck maintenance man for the ship, said at least 16 of the 41 who signed on for the trip were reported safe.

The ship's captain, identified by crew members as John Rugling of Milton, Mass., was among those missing. Some of the crew members said the captain spelled his name Rugman.

Spokesmen for the company said only three men went through the first aid department and only one of them was hospitalized. All three were picked up in the cold Calcasieu River by the tug Sue B.

Crewman John Klepadlo of Avoca, Pa., one of those rescued by the tug, said he was standing on the fantail of the ship with two other men, but was unable to give any account of them after the blast.

Klepadlo was quoted as saying, "Anybody who was on that ship after I left it just won't be around to talk about it."

No cause was given for the explosion. The tanker, loading in three holds at the rate of 20,000 barrels per hour, had been loading for more than six hours and was almost full when the explosion tore the vessel asunder and left it a flaming hulk.

No damage estimate was available on the tanker, which drifted toward the middle of the river as firefighters battled the blaze.

Shows Power
In Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS (P)—Former Gov. Earl Long stormed down the comeback trail to landslide victory in the Louisiana governor's race today, leaving the administration of pro-Eisenhower Gov. Robert Kennon in the dust.

Mayor DeLespess Morrison of New Orleans, the only candidate in the five-man field in the Democratic primary who could have forced the race into a Feb. 21 runoff, conceded at 2 a. m.

Building his lead constantly as late rural returns trickled in, the 60-year-old Long rolled toward the majority vote needed to avoid a runoff with the second-placer.

Unofficial returns from 1,725 of the state's 2,039 precincts showed: Francis Grevenberg 50,710; Earl Long 340,702; James McLemore 38,843; DeLespess Morrison 159,105; Fred Preaus 84,473.

Long, uncle of Sen. Russell Long (D-La.) and brother of Rep. George Long (D-La.), drew 51.5 per cent of the votes counted so far.

THE REPUBLICANS did not hold a primary to nominate a governor. Thus Long's victory assured him an unprecedented third stay in the 45-room mansion that his brother Huey built.

Ohio Senate Panel Studies Capital Improvements Bill

COLUMBUS (P)—The Ohio Senate Finance Committee today took up an emergency bill providing $37 million for capital improvements.

The Senate referred the measure to committee after the House passed it, 114-7, last night. Final Senate action is expected today, the third day of the Legislature's special session.

The bill includes a compromise allocation of $7 million from the anticipated state surplus for school buildings in needy districts.

The Senate earlier had passed a bill providing for an extra penny-a-pack tax on cigarettes, effective March 5. The tax, which boosts the state's total to 3 cents on a package of cigarettes, will be used to retire a $150 million bond issue for public buildings.

The House passed the cigarette tax bill Monday.

The bond issue, approved by voters last November, would launch the Legislature's long-range state building program.

Lawmakers Monday completed approval of emergency bills setting up mechanics for issuing the bonds and authorizing the sale of the first $30 million.

Also included in these acts were authorization to borrow $5 million from the state surplus to get the construction program rolling immediately.

The Legislature has yet to complete final action on an amendment to an appropriation bill allocating the $30 million.

The amendment, adopted yesterday by the House Finance Committee, would split the $30 million on a 50-50 basis between mental and penal institutions and six state universities.

Under the bond issue law, only $30 million can be spent in any one year.

Poor school districts would get $7 million from the state treasury surplus. Districts eligible would have a per-pupil real estate tax valuation of $6,000 or less.

Both the Ohio Education Assn. and the new state board of education are opposed to the eligibility requirement.

The House Finance Committee included in the appropriation measure a pledge that schools would get at least $10 million next year. Lawmakers differed in opinion whether this was a definite grant.

Meanwhile, it was learned that appropriations to needy school districts would make Ohio eligible for federal school aid.

The Ohio White House Conference Committee is on record against any federal grants to schools.

R. M. Eymann, state superintendent of public instruction, gave no figures in divulging that Ohio would be eligible for federal school funds because of the Legislature's appropriations.

The U. S. Welfare Department has announced that Ohio is eligible for $8,249,000, if Congress approved the school aid plan. Ohio would have to match that figure with $12,144,000 for school construction.

The Legislature has indicated, through the proposed $7 million school grant from the treasury surplus and the $10 million promised for next year, that matching funds would be met.

for the liaison officers between the Auxiliary Patrol unit and Civilian Defense organization.

WHEN THE UNIT was first organized here, it was made up almost entirely of veterans of the first World War, because the country was then embroiled in the second war and there were very few veterans back from that one until four years later. However, since then, veterans of the second war have been integrated into the unit as it has expanded and some of the original members, who had to quit the unit because of health or death, have been replaced by veterans of the second war.

All members of the Fayette County Auxiliary unit are members of the Paul H. Hughey post of the Legion here.

The Patrol Auxiliary is a statewide organization of more than 5,000 Legionnaires in the units in all but five of the state's 88 counties. Membership in the American Legion is one of the requirements for the Auxiliary.

State Patrolman R. R. Sheline is the present instructor and counselor of the unit here. In addition to the instruction given the Auxiliary members, they are frequently taken by the highway patrolmen on their patrols.

THE AUXILIARY unit members are subject to call for emergency duty day or night. Besides, they frequently lend a hand to the regular state patrolmen in handling traffic and the like. The Auxiliary patrolmen have uniforms and certified credentials.

Meetings are held the third Tuesday of every month at the American Legion Hall by the unit here.

Toward the close of the election meeting Tuesday night, members of the unit made personal contributions to a fund that was turned over to the Irvin J. Patrick fund. Patrick, Fayette County's game protector and a close cooperater with the Auxiliary unit here in law enforcement, was fatally shot in line of duty the first day of hunting season Nov. 15.

Two motion pictures, one highlighting accident control and the other showing something of the life of a state trooper, were shown.

PTO Tries Early Meeting Time

Afternoon Session Is Unsuccessful

The Central School third and fourth grades performed for parents Tuesday afternoon at a trial afternoon session of the Central Parent Teachers Association.

Mrs. George Pensyl led the youngsters in singing.

Members tried the 1:30 P. M. meeting time in the hope of increasing attendance, but considered the results unsuccessful. The next meeting will be held at the regular meeting time, 7:30 P. M., on March 20.

To remind parents of the dates of PTA meetings, small calendars with the dates marked were handed out.

Rev. Clinton W. Swengel offered prayer after Mrs. John Williams, president, opened the meeting. Rev. Swengel later showed slides of his trip to Europe.

A report on the school's first carnival, held in November, was given. The carnival was considered a success.

The third grade room will receive the banner for having the most mothers present at the PTA meeting.

On April 10 a joint meeting of Parent Teachers Associations will be held at the Central School, with C. B. Montis speaking on "Presidents are Only People."

Serving refreshments were Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, Mrs. John Leland, Mrs. Francis Haines and Mrs. Joseph Herbert.

Surplus Earth Brings in $1,910

Manager Of Dump Makes His Report

Last year, earth excavated from the city dump was sold by the city at $1.50 per load, the buyer furnishing the truck; the city received a total of $1,910 for the surplus earth disposed of in this way.

Several years ago the city purchased the tract of 16 acres located south of the M. Hamm Co. fertilizer plant for $8,000.

Sale of earth the past year amounted to 25 percent of the total cost of the grounds, it was pointed out by City Manager James F. Parkinson.

Cost of moving the earth from the deep trenches and loading it was nearly the same amount, but this expense would have been about the same if the earth had not been sold, so it is figured the city is ahead nearly $2,000 on the transaction for the year.

Much of the earth removed is not required to fill the trenches cut to receive material for the dump, which is piled in, crushed as much as possible, and then a layer of earth put over it.

As the fill progresses the surface is left level, and all refuse is covered over to a considerable depth.

is assigned with the 2750th Air Base Wing, at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, as a radio repairman.

Earl Stewart of Mt. Sterling, was admitted to Memorial Hospital, Wednesday morning, as a patient for observation and treatment.

PTO Tries Early Meeting Time

Afternoon Session Is Unsuccessful

The Central School third and fourth grades performed for parents Tuesday afternoon at a trial afternoon session of the Central Parent Teachers Association.

Mrs. George Pensyl led the youngsters in singing.

Members tried the 1:30 P. M. meeting time in the hope of increasing attendance, but considered the results unsuccessful. The next meeting will be held at the regular meeting time, 7:30 P. M., on March 20.

To remind parents of the dates of PTA meetings, small calendars with the dates marked were handed out.

Rev. Clinton W. Swengel offered prayer after Mrs. John Williams, president, opened the meeting. Rev. Swengel later showed slides of his trip to Europe.

A report on the school's first carnival, held in November, was given. The carnival was considered a success.

The third grade room will receive the banner for having the most mothers present at the PTA meeting.

On April 10 a joint meeting of Parent Teachers Associations will be held at the Central School, with C. B. Montis speaking on "Presidents are Only People."

Serving refreshments were Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, Mrs. John Leland, Mrs. Francis Haines and Mrs. Joseph Herbert.

B&B Restaurant Has New Owners

Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. (Leona) Meredith of Greenfield have taken over the management of the B&B Restaurant, 225 East Court Street here. They purchased the business from Mrs. Alice Huron.

Meredith has been with the B&O Railroad since 1936 and as a maintenance foreman for the last several years. Mrs. Meredith has been employed at the U. S. Shoe Corp. plant in Greenfield since 1939. They expect to move here.

Bill Campbell, out of the Marine Corps about a year, has been managing the B&B Restaurant owned by his mother. He said his plans for the future were still uncertain.

Surplus Earth Brings in $1,910

Manager Of Dump Makes His Report

Last year, earth excavated from the city dump was sold by the city at $1.50 per load, the buyer furnishing the truck; the city received a total of $1,910 for the surplus earth disposed of in this way.

Several years ago the city purchased the tract of 16 acres located south of the M. Hamm Co. fertilizer plant for $8,000.

Sale of earth the past year amounted to 25 percent of the total cost of the grounds, it was pointed out by City Manager James F. Parkinson.

Cost of moving the earth from the deep trenches and loading it was nearly the same amount, but this expense would have been about the same if the earth had not been sold, so it is figured the city is ahead nearly $2,000 on the transaction for the year.

Much of the earth removed is not required to fill the trenches cut to receive material for the dump, which is piled in, crushed as much as possible, and then a layer of earth put over it.

As the fill progresses the surface is left level, and all refuse is covered over to a considerable depth.

It is a basic premise of Communism that capitalism murderously exploits the masses of working people, and reduces them to the dullness of clods with barely enough of the material things of life to keep body and soul together. To sit for the picture, Newsweek chose a 32-year-old layout inspector in a plant of one of the major auto manufacturers. He isn't typical, the magazine points out—nobody can really be called that. But he is representative. And the Marx-Engels portrait of the worker bears as little resemblance to this actual one "as a surrealist's nightmare."

He has worked for his company since graduating from high school and has steadily moved upward. He puts in alternate 40 and 48 hour weeks, for which he receives $108 and $140 respectively. In addition, he earns $40 to $50 a month for lunch-hour work for a catering company.

His living standards would make Marx and Engels and their present-day counterparts blink their eyes in disbelief. He, with his attractive wife and son, live in a house valued at $17,000. His car is a 1955 medium-priced model—and the car and the house are the only possessions he owes for. The house has all the modern conveniences, down to the TV set. He has a substantial amount of life and other protective insurance. For a hobby, the family raises registered German shepherds.

He is a good union man, though he has reservations about the new merger and the talk of a 30-hour week. He is also a Democrat—but he thinks "Ike has done a pretty good job." Apparently he plans to vote Democratic next time, too—yet "he won't be too disturbed if the Republicans stay in power."

As Newsweek sums it all up, in the way he lives and in his aspiration he "isn't much different from other Americans."

The skilled American worker, in other words, has made and continues to make enormous gains, judged by any criteria. And the representative worker, it certainly seems, is a fairly conservative chap, who likes his job and his life in general and isn't easily moved to extremes of attitude. Men such as this constitute the core of the organized labor movement today—and it certainly is quite a question as to just how susceptible they are to the mandates, political and otherwise, of the union spokesmen. It looks as if they are in the habit of thinking for themselves.

Migration -- Back To City

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—The greatest space explorers of our time aren't the men who yearn to voyage to the moon. They are the families who have moved out to the suburbs.

Much has been made of the great migration away from the cities. Not enough attention has been paid to the great trend back to the cities by disappointed pioneers who have found suburban living not all it was cracked up to be.

Harsh reality has blasted their dream of a peaceful vine-covered cottage with a rose bush at its door, far from the hurly-burly of the city. They silently and gratefully creep back to the comfort of an apartment in town like frustrated pilgrims who started out for Mecca but found the journey too arduous.

As a confirmed city lover myself, I welcome them back home to refuge. But I am left with a feeling of sincere sympathy for the pitiable plight of the pitiful folk who are still doomed to live in that outer cultural darkness that begins where the city limits end.

Don't think that the trend back to the cities is just a mirage on my part. It is real. Thousands who fled the city to get away from it all are now returning to get back to it all.

A big new apartment house was completed here in Manhattan last year and where do you think the canny owners got their tenants? They got a lot of them by placing ads in suburban newspapers. The disillusioned suburbanites leaped at the chance to call their whole adventure off and come back to civilization.

They had decided that, while the suburbs are a great place to visit, they no longer wanted to live there.

The suburbs, of course, are a fine place to raise women and children. But many parents are making the discovery that schools in the suburbs are no better than those in the city, and are often just as crowded. Suburban wives complain they spend more time acting as chauffeurs for their husband and children than they do attending to their housekeeping chores.

I asked one returnee to the city why he had come back, and he said:

"I moved out to the suburbs because I thought they would be more quiet and restful and the people would be more friendly. I gave it the old college try, but it didn't work."

"Living in the suburbs isn't restful. It's hard work. I'm not one of those do-it-yourself fellows, but I found I had to become my own carpenter, plumber, electrician and landscape gardener."

"Just to get to my job I had to use three forms of transportation—car, train and subway. Most of the time I had to stand up on the 45-minute train ride, and I was worn out by the time I reached my office."

"Friendliness? The neighbor on my left was a Don Juan who tried to make passes at my wife everytime we had a party, and in the suburbs you have to have parties all the time to keep from going crazy from boredom. The neighbor on my right was such a crackpot that after three weeks we only talked to each other through our lawyers."

"And the conversation! All the people in the suburbs talk about is lawnmowers, the price of new furniture, the latest bright sayings of their kids, and whether the new family that moved in across the street is living above its income. Gossip, Gossip, Gossip! They all patronize the same diaper service, so nobody has a secret."

"Culture? How can you have culture when everybody belongs to the same book club?"

"The reason I came back to the city was to get a rest cure, and so I could pick my own friends again and lead my own life. Boy, am I glad I'm back! When I die I don't even want to be buried in the suburbs. I was buried there long enough. Let 'em scatter my ashes in the city streets."

Many other returned migrants share his views. They feel that, while there are a lot of things wrong with city life, there's nothing wrong with it that a five-year exile to the suburbs won't make look better.

Russians Interpret Colonialism

One of the most unpopular words in the currency of all languages is colonialism. The impression is being given that colonialism is all bad and that the people of all colonies suffered from their oppressors; that no benefits whatsoever were gained through the great enterprise of establishing and maintaining colonies.

For instance, in Burma, Nikita Khrushchev said:

"The colonialists convinced the oppressed peoples that the colonial peoples are unable to administer their countries. This lie was extensively inculcated into the minds of the peoples in order to hold them in submission. But are not the Burmese just as gifted as, say, the Russians or the British? Peoples are not divided into capable or incapable ones. If they are given equal chances, they will achieve success in their development. (Stormy applause)."

Stormy applause, indeed! What about Latvia, Lithuania, Poland? Are they not suffering from the worst kind of colonialism? What about Hungary and Czechoslovakia? And if the Burmese were as capable as the British, why did they never develop into a powerful state as little England did under Elizabeth I?

But these questions were not asked in Burma. They are never asked because when the British, the French, the Dutch control some weak or backward nation, it is called colonialism; but when the Russians seize such a great country as Hungary or East Germany, it is called liberation. Does the change of words change the facts? It does if one goes by words and not by facts, and so many do just that.

In this same speech in Burma, Khrushchev said:

" . . . If you need assistance, tell us and we will help you. We will help you with engineers, and we will share our experience with you . . ."

Of course, the United States has been doing all that and more through the Point Four program, but we are shy and reticent. Therefore, we get no credit for what we are doing. We still blow balloons up into the air and circulate pamphlets telling how wicked the Russians are but Khrushchev makes the world his hussies and delivers campaign arguments at every whistle stop in every country that lets him in. He promises heaven on earth and absorbs countries into the Soviet Universal State as though by osmosis, without firing a shot. Therefore, what he practices is not colonialism because Khrushchev and Bulganin are not clive and raffles. They are just two Marxists who make stump speeches on liberation and against colonialism.

So Khrushchev said: "I address the generals, officers, and soldiers of the Union of Burma with a friendly wish for a further technical perfection. We, in the same way as you, are compelled to maintain armed forces. We bring them up in the spirit of love for the mother land and in the spirit of being ready for self-sacrifice should this be required in the interests of defending our motherland against the encroachment of foreign invaders."

What armed forces? Who has been trying to invade either Soviet Russia or Burma? Does one need any facts? Not these days! One needs only to use the telling words, false though they be. We Americans do not use the telling words. Our words have no hate in them, no vilification. We say that we believe in democracy but we do not say that we are capitalists, for the right of a man to keep and use his earnings, at his own risk and judgment, to gain or to lose in free competition with others.

No! We do not say that. What we say is democracy which no one defines so that there can be no mistake as to what we are talking about.

Others demand to know whether colonialism is democracy. We do not dare tell the wonderful story of the western contribution to the weak and backward peoples of Asia and Africa, peoples who are even today adding to our woes and our costs of life.

When John Foster Dulles goes to Congress for more foreign aid, someone might ask him about that. What about what we have done for such a people like the Chinese from 1840 to 1945? And they accuse us, a people who have never taken an inch of their soil, of being colonialists. The time has come to give the lie to this accusation of colonialism.

Census figures show that between 1910 and 1950 the greatest drop in jobs in the United States has been in unskilled groups, says the Population Reference Bureau.

The common strawberry mark generally will vanish by itself within a few years. Refrigeration with solid carbon dioxide may eliminate the mark, but it sometimes results in scarring. However, there are various injections which help to clear up the

American Workers Gains Belie Communism

It is a basic premise of Communism that capitalism murderously exploits the masses of working people, and reduces them to the dust of clods with barely enough of the material things of life to keep body and soul together. Thus, Marx and Engels wrote, in "The Communist Manifesto": "The work of the proletarians has lost all individual character, and, consequently all charm for the workmen. He becomes an appendage of the machine, and it is only the most simple, most monotonous, and most easily acquired knack, that is required of him. Hence, the cost of production of a workman is restricted . . . to the means of subsistence that he requires for his maintenance, and for the propagation of his race."

This quotation precedes a recent article in Newsweek entitled "The Union Man." The article's purpose is to give a picture of the kind of person who will "help to determine the course of labor-management relations in the United States during the next decade or two." For, it is obvious, the powers-that-be in the newly-joined AFL-CIO labor organization won't get far unless they earn the approval of the 15,000,000 union members.

To sit for the picture, Newsweek chose a 32-year-old layout inspector in a plant of one of the major auto manufacturers. He isn't typical, the magazine points out—no body can really be called that. But he is representative. And the Marx-Engels portrait of the worker bears as little resemblance to this actual one "as a surrealist's nightmare."

He has worked for his company since graduating from high school and has steadily moved upward. He puts in alternate 40 and 48 hour weeks, for which he receives $108 and $140 respectively. In addition, he earns $40 to $50 a month for lunch-hour work for a catering company.

His living standards would make Marx and Engels and their present-day counterparts blink their eyes in disbelief. He, with his attractive wife and son, live in a house valued at $17,000. His car is a 1955 medium-priced model—and the car and the house are the only possessions he owes for. The house has all the modern conveniences, down to the TV set. He has a substantial amount of life and other protective insurance. For a hobby, the family raises registered German shepherd dogs.

He is a good union man, though he has reservations about the new merger and the talk of a 30-hour week. He is also a Democrat—but he thinks "Ike has done a pretty good job." Apparently he plans to vote Democratic next time, too—yet "he won't be too disturbed if the Republicans stay in power."

As Newsweek sums it all up, in the way he lives and in his aspiration he "isn't much different from other Americans."

The skilled American worker, in other words, has made and continues to make enormous gains, judged by any criteria. And the representative worker, it certainly seems, is a fairly conservative chap, who likes his job and his life in general and isn't easily moved to extremes of attitude. Men such as this constitute the core of the organized labor movement today—and it certainly is quite a question as to just how susceptible they are to the mandates, political and otherwise, of the union spokesmen. It looks as if they are in the habit of thinking for themselves.

Parkinson Is Rotary Speaker

City Manager Lauds 'Rotarian' Magazine

Rotary International's monthly magazine, "The Rotarian," got its share of attention at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Washington C. H. Rotary Club.

City Manager James F. Parkinson, a member of the club, gave members a look at how the magazine is put together, what it covers and how it can serve Rotarians.

Founded 45 years ago this month, the magazine today boasts a circulation of 350,000—just 70 times the circulation of that first issue in January, 1911.

A Spanish edition, "Revista Rotaria," adds another 39,500 to the total circulation of the two Rotary magazines. Between them, the two publications circulate in 93 countries and regions of the world. In addition, the U. S. State Department reprints one or more articles nearly every month for distribution to other countries, Parkinson said.

The staff for both editions consists of 33 employees, key personnel being professionally trained publication men, he said.

Each month, "The Rotarian" uses 65 tons of paper, Parkinson said. That amounts to 17 carloads a year.

Non-Rotarians also subscribe to the magazine, he said, though the majority of subscribers are, of course, members of Rotary. U. S. and Canadian Rotarians subscribe to the magazine automatically, the subscription price being included in membership dues.

The city manager was introduced by Dr. Francis Haines.

UPCOMING EVENTS announced at the meeting, held in the Country Club here, included the Rotary Ann meeting scheduled for Feb. 8. The program for that meeting is a secret, according to President Paul Dougherty, but it is "guaranteed to please the ladies," he said.

Rotary will sponsor the third in an annual series of concerts by the Dayton Rotary boys choir. The concert will be at the Washington C. H. High School auditorium Feb. 21.

President Dougherty introduced Rollo Marchant, a Rotarian entering the Republican primary for prosecutor.

Visiting Rotarians at the meeting were Robert Jackson and Jay Neff, both of Mt. Sterling. Guests included Robert Black and John Stager, both of Columbus, who were guests of Ray Brandenburg, and M-Sgt. Leist of the Second Army headquarters at Fort Meade, Md., the guest of Donald Wood.

Student guests were John McWilliams and Roger DeWeese.

"The Pied Piper of Hamelin" has been the subject of interest to the fifth grade English classes at Cherry Hill School recently.

This old favorite about the ridding of the rodents from a community in Germany was introduced to the students by Miss Opal Davids who has been substituting for Mrs. Amelia Child during her absence.

A beautifully illustrated book containing the complete poem was brought in by Carolyn Limes. Carolyn also brought the recordings of the poem which had been made by a famous reader of poetry.

In the "Treasury of Literature" series of readers, which have been made available to the teachers in the third through the sixth grades, are a number of old favorite stories which disappeared from reading books for awhile.

The pupils have been very much interested in these stories as they add life and zest to their reading programs.

Containing the very finest children's literature, these books are profusely illustrated with drawings that stimulate the children to read more and more.

One of the favorite stories at the moment, which appears in the fifth grade book of the series entitled "Magic Carpet," is "Brer Rabbit and the Tar Baby," which is shown this week in the Walt Disney television program. After having read the story, the pupils can appreciate more the humor appearing in the television cartoon presentation.

ing the peace filed by Susie Newland.

The six months in the workhouse was suspended providing he not mistreat the complainant.

A charge filed by Susie Newland against Mary Newland, in which she was accused of disturbing the peace, was dismissed by Judge Max G. Dice.

Ater-Jacobs
Wedding Vows
Read Jan. 14

The Methodist Church in New Holland was the setting on Saturday, January 14, for the wedding of Miss Evelyn M. Ater, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Speakman of New Holland and Mr. Russell L. Jacobs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Jacobs, of the Clarksburg Road, near New Holland.

Rev. Glenn Robison, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30 P. M. before a candlelight altar decorated with arrangements of white snapdragons with a background of green foliage.

The ceremony, attended by relatives and close friends, was preceded by a half hour of wedding music presented by Mrs. Wilfred Hupp, organist.

The couple was unattended and the bride chose for her marriage a mist grey corse silk dress fashioned with a fitted bodice, a touch of white at the neck, bracelet length sleeves, narrow cuffs banded in white and a full skirt. With this she wore a small hat of straw and satin in white, and her corsage was white roses and shattered carnations.

Mrs. Speakman wore a two piece dress in Royal blue, with gold accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Jacobs was dressed in a grey silk crepe dress, with accessories of winter white and her corsage was American beauty roses.

The bride is a graduate of New Holland High School, in the Class of 1955 and is a bookkeeper at the Helfrich Super Market in this city.

The bridegroom also graduated from New Holland High School in the Class of 1955 and is employed at the General Electric Plant in Circleville.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs are at home to their friends in their newly furnished apartment on West Front Street, in New Holland.

Quick supper: slices of precooked ham broiled with canned sweet potato halves and pineapple rings.

A big help if you're trying to remove a little spilled candle wax from a table top is to hold an ice cube on the wax for a few seconds — but wipe up melted ice immediately so there won't be any water spots.

Dinner Precedes Meeting Of Church Society

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of First Christian Church was preceded by a covered dish dinner at the church Tuesday evening.

The business session later was presided over by Mrs. Otis Stookey who opened with Scripture reading from the Eighth Psalm, the reading of a poem entitled "Resolved" which was followed with prayer by Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Ten members responded to roll call and the usual reports were heard and approved.

Election of officers for the coming year resulted in the following members being chosen: Mrs. Ted Merritt, president; Mrs. Elza Arnold, vice president; Mrs. Georgia Waddell, secretary; Mrs. O. L. Allen, assistant secretary; Mrs. Hubert Folis, treasurer and Mrs. Ursa Thornhill, assistant treasurer.

Round robin cards were signed to be sent to ill members and the missionary project chosen for the month was the College of Scriptures, to which a contribution was made.

The meeting was closed with the Mizpah benediction and visiting was enjoyed.

Mrs. Coyt Stookey and daughter, Elaine, were included as guests at the meeting.

Young Lady Is Honored On Birthday

Beverly Campbell was the guest of honor at a surprise party given for her by Fannie and John Langley, on her birthday anniversary, at the Langley home on the Greenfield Road.

A scavenger hunt and dancing to recordings was included in the entertainment for the evening, and later, the honor guest opened her lovely array of gifts for which she graciously responded.

At the close of the party, the young host and hostess served refreshments and were assisted by their mother, Mrs. John Langley, Mrs. Perley Fryer, Mrs. Alvin Campbell and Mrs. Audrey Runyon.

The invited guest list included: Misses Sue Minshall, Carol Fryer, Donna Mathews, Clara Ellen Mathews, Carolyn Gault, Ileen Cunningham, Mary Chakeres, Jo Ann Bonham, Joyce Sword, Martha Climer, Ann Sheppard, Judy Strickler, Robert Jenkins, Roger Jenkins, Oscar Glass, David Mathews, Tom Slager, Ronnie VanDyke and Ronnie Langley, Lois Runyon, Sally Junk and Doris Langley.

Ater-Jacobs Wedding Vows Read Jan. 14

The Methodist Church in New Holland was the setting on Saturday, January 14, for the wedding of Miss Evelyn M. Ater, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Speakman of New Holland and Mr. Russell L. Jacobs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Jacobs, of the Clarksburg Road, near New Holland.

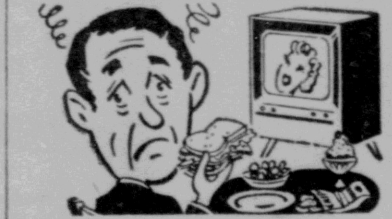

Rev. Glenn Robison, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30 P. M. before a candlelighted altar decorated with arrangements of white snapdragons with a background of green foliage.

The ceremony, attended by relatives and close friends, was preceded by a half hour of wedding music presented by Mrs. Wilfred Hupp, organist.

The couple was unattended and the bride chose for her marriage a mist grey corse silk dress fashioned with a fitted bodice, a touch of white at the neck, bracelet length sleeves, narrow cuffs banded in white and a full skirt. With this she wore a small hat of straw and satin in white, and her corsage was white roses and shattered carnations.

Mrs. Speakman wore a two piece dress in Royal blue, with gold accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Jacobs was dressed in a grey silk crepe dress, with accessories of winter white and her corsage was American beauty roses.

The bride is a graduate of New Holland High School, in the Class of 1955 and is a bookkeeper at the Helfrich Super Market in this city.

The bridegroom also graduated from New Holland High School in the Class of 1955 and is employed at the General Electric Plant in Circleville.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs are at home to their friends in their newly furnished apartment on West Front Street, in New Holland.

Quick supper: slices of precooked ham broiled with canned sweet potato halves and pineapple rings.

A big help if you're trying to remove a little spilled candle wax from a table top is to hold an ice cube on the wax for a few seconds — but wipe up melted ice immediately so there won't be any water spots.

Lions Get 5th in Row By Beating Mt. Sterling

The Lion eagles fattened their scoring totals at the expense of the boys from Mt. Sterling... and that was about all there was to the return game that was played on the WHS floor Tuesday night.

When the game was finally over, the Lions chalked up their fifth victory in a row and the ninth for the season against three defeats. The score was 69 for the Lions and 43 for the visiting Greyhounds. The Lions won, 73-43, when the two teams met in Mt. Sterling Dec. 30.

With the Lion regulars on the floor, the WHS outfit took a 14-8 lead in the first period, despite a lot of wild and ineffective shooting, especially under the basket.

The Greyhounds were about to add only 7 points in the second period and were trailing 40-15 at the intermission. By that time the Lions seemed to be completely out of danger, but they ran the score up to 60-24 in the third period—and that really put it on ice.

Three of the second string Lions got their chance in the last period when the WHS total was raised by 9 points.

Meanwhile, the Greyhounds were coming down the home stretch with a rush and nearly double the score they had made in the first three periods as they tallied 19 points.

The game was ragged and wild much of the time. Neither team was hitting the hoops with any consistency, either close in or far out. Fred Belles led the WHS scoring

U. S. Winter Olympic Stars Said Fading

CERTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—In the cold and snow of Oslo in 1952, the United States sent a chill down the spines of the winter sports countries.

The Yanks took home four Olympic gold medals and that's four more than anyone thought they could win.

Will the American upstarts do it again this year in the seventh winter Olympiad, which opens here a week from tomorrow?

The answer in this Alpine village is "no," say the experts.

Most folks connected with the games here think the Americans will win two gold medals and maybe a third. But they're sure it won't be four. Many of the Americans themselves admit that the odds are against them.

The first-place finishers in the Oslo games were Mrs. Andrea Mead Lawrence in the women's slalom and giant slalom, Dick Button in figure skating and Ken Henry in speed skating.

Mrs. Lawrence and Henry are back again, but Button has turned professional. Neither Mrs. Lawrence nor Henry is expected to repeat.

Mrs. Lawrence, who has had three children since the last Olympics, has been coming along slowly and it's doubtful if she'll hit her top form by game time.

Henry, who is now 27, a gray-beard as speed skaters go, has been erratic recently.

Willie Mays is the first player in major league history to hit 50 or more homers (he hit 51 last year) and steal 20 or more bases in the same season. He stole 24 bases in 1955.

Jeffersonville Tigers Win at New Holland

Jeffersonville's Tigers got hot in the third period and New Holland's Bulldogs got cold at the same time.

That was the story of Jeff's 68-55 triumph at New Holland Tuesday night.

The teams were pretty evenly matched before and after that decisive period, but the Tigers sewed the game up then and there. For "Jeff," you could read "John Wright," so far as the third period bulge is concerned.

Wright shot seven times in that period and scored six field goals. His total for the game was nine from the field for 18 points—tops among the Jeff boys.

New Holland's Glen Large, however, took high scoring honors for the game with his total of 24 points on 10 field goals and four free throws.

At halftime, the Jeff boys held a skimpy 33-31 lead. But they scored

Odds On Saddler Now Out Of Sight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sandy Saddler, despite giving away 10 years in age, is favored so strongly to defend successfully his featherweight boxing title against Flash Elorde tonight that there aren't any odds posted on the outcome. The word on fight row here was that the only wagering was on when the scheduled 15-round title match would end.

Tonight's fight will be televised nationally at 10 p.m. EST.

Top-Rankers Face Tough Tests Tonight

(By The Associated Press)
Some of the giants of major college basketball take shots at each other tonight in what should be a pair of great scraps while Dayton, No. 2 team in the nation, tries for its 13th straight success.

In the battles between the ranking teams, North Carolina State, No. 3, is at North Carolina, No. 9, in an important Atlantic Coast Conference game and Louisville, No. 10, takes on Memphis State, No. 15.

Dayton and seven-foot Bill Uhl

are at home to unranked Villanova, no better than 7-6 at the present.

There was very little activity last night. Holy Cross, No. 12, had the spotlight with an 81-67 decision over Dartmouth's disappointing Indians. The only surprise was the slim 18 points Tom Heinsohn had for the Crusaders, who were paced by Joe Liebler's 26.

Elsewhere, William & Mary hit 61 per cent of its set shots in the first half and waltzed past Virginia Military 81-72 in a Southern Conference game. In the Yankee Conference, Connecticut moved nearer another title by swamping New Hampshire 93-56.

Miami of Ohio strengthened its second-place spot in the Mid-American Conference with a 93-70 victory over Ohio U. Cincinnati smacked Xavier (Ohio) 71-66; Niagara, suffering only five foul calls, coasted to an 84-56 decision over Toronto; and Colgate whacked Hobart 84-62.

In the only upset, Seattle handed 14th-ranked Oklahoma City its third defeat, 89-84.

The University of Texas leans all schools in Cotton Bowl appearances, having made five trips to Dallas on New Year's Day.

The Cincinnati Redlegs permitted 85 unearned runs during the 1955 National League season.

Lions Get 5th in Row By Beating Mt. Sterling

The Lion eagles fattened their scoring totals at the expense of the boys from Mt. Sterling... and that was about all there was to the return game that was played on the WHS floor Tuesday night.

When the game was finally over, the Lions chalked up their fifth victory in a row and the ninth for the season against three defeats. The score was 69 for the Lions and 43 for the visiting Greyhounds. The Lions won, 73-43, when the two teams met in Mt. Sterling Dec. 30.

With the Lion regulars on the floor, the WHS outfit took a 14-8 lead in the first period, despite a lot of wild and ineffective shooting, especially under the basket.

The Greyhounds were about to add only 7 points in the second period and were trailing 40-15 at the intermission. By that time the Lions seemed to be completely out of danger, but they ran the score up to 60-24 in the third period—and that really put it on ice.

Three of the second string Lions got their chance in the last period when the WHS total was raised by 9 points.

Meanwhile, the Greyhounds were coming down the home stretch with a rush and nearly double the score they had made in the first three periods as they tallied 19 points.

The game was ragged and wild much of the time. Neither team was hitting the hoops with any consistency, either close in or far out. Fred Belles led the WHS scoring

U. S. Winter Olympic Stars Said Fading

CERTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (U. S. In the cold and snow of Oslo in 1952, the United States sent a chill down the spines of the winter sports countries.

The Yanks took home four Olympic gold medals and that's four more than anyone thought they could win.

Will the American upstarts do it again this year in the seventh winter Olympiad, which opens here a week from tomorrow?

The answer in this Alpine village is "no," say the experts.

Most folks connected with the games here think the Americans will win two gold medals and maybe a third. But they're sure it won't be four. Many of the Americans themselves admit that the odds are against them.

The first-place finishers in the Oslo games were Mrs. Andrea Mead Lawrence in the women's slalom and giant slalom, Dick Button in figure skating and Ken Henry in speed skating.

Mrs. Lawrence and Henry are back again, but Button has turned professional. Neither Mrs. Lawrence nor Henry is expected to repeat.

Mrs. Lawrence, who has had three children since the last Olympics, has been coming along slowly and it's doubtful if she'll hit her top form by game time.

Henry, who is now 27, a gray-beard as speed skaters go, has been erratic recently.

Willie Mays is the first player in major league history to hit 50 or more homers (he hit 51 last year) and steal 20 or more bases in the same season. He stole 24 bases in 1955.

with 21 points, 9 of them on free throws. Tall impassive Dave Lee was second high scorer for the Lions; although he missed several rebound shots, he did connect for five of those soft layups and got 4 from the foul line for a total of 14 points.

Tom Swaim and Dick English came through with some more spectacular ball-hawking to set up many of the WHS scoring plays.

Roger Shackelford, who played much of the game for the first time this season, gave a good account of himself as he contributed 4 field goals and 10 points and passed quickly and accurately in the floor maneuvers.

Second high scorer of the game was Jack Phillips, who got 7 from the field, most of them long looping one-handers, and 2 free throws for 16 points. Second high scorer for the Greyhounds was Stewart with 13 points, 9 of them coming from the foul line.

The Greyhounds won the admiration of the sparse crowd by their never-say-die spirit and sportsmanship in the face of inevitable defeat.

In the preliminary, the WHS reserves won 46 to 31. The WHS line-up, and the total points scored, was: Southward 9, Boyer 2, Dodds 6, Mason 2, Miller 8, Milstead 17 and Bainter 2.

Jeffersonville Tigers Win at New Holland

Jeffersonville's Tigers got hot in the third period and New Holland's Bulldogs got cold at the same time.

That was the story of Jeff's 68-55 triumph at New Holland Tuesday night.

The teams were pretty evenly matched before and after that decisive period, but the Tigers sewed the game up then and there. For "Jeff," you could read "John Wright," so far as the third period bulge is concerned.

Wright shot seven times in that period and scored six field goals. His total for the game was nine from the field for 18 points—tops among the Jeff boys.

New Holland's Glen Large, however, took high scoring honors for the game with his total of 24 points on 10 field goals and four free throws.

At halftime, the Jeff boys held a skimpy 33-31 lead. But they scor-

Odds On Saddler Now Out Of Sight

SAN FRANCISCO (U. S. — Sandy Saddler, despite giving away 10 years in age, is favored so strongly to defend successfully his feather weight boxing title against Flash Elorde tonight that there aren't any odds posted on the outcome.

The word on fistic row here was that the only wagering was on when the scheduled 15-round title match would end.

Tonight's fight will be televised nationally at 10 p. m. EST.

Top-Rankers Face Tough Tests Tonight

(By The Associated Press)

Some of the giants of major college basketball take shots at each other tonight in what should be a pair of great scraps while Dayton, No. 2 team in the nation, tries for its 13th straight success.

In the battles between the ranking teams, North Carolina State, No. 3, is at North Carolina, No. 9, in an important Atlantic Coast Conference game and Louisville, No. 10, takes on Memphis State, No. 15.

Dayton and seven-foot Bill Uhl

are at home to unranked Villanova, no better than 7-6 at the present.

There was very little activity last night. Holy Cross, No. 12, had the spotlight with an 81-67 decision over Dartmouth's disappointing Indians. The only surprise was the slim 18 points Tom Heinsohn had for the Crusaders, who were paced by Joe Liebler's 26.

Elsewhere, William & Mary hit 61 per cent of its set shots in the first half and waltzed past Virginia Military 81-72 in a Southern Conference game. In the Yankee Conference, Connecticut moved nearer another title by swamping New Hampshire 93-56.

Miami of Ohio strengthened its second-place spot in the Mid-American Conference with a 93-70 victory over Ohio U. Cincinnati

Middletown Cagers Top Ohio High School List

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Butler County continues to reign as Ohio's basketball capital, just as Stark County does in football.

The weekly Associated Press poll of 43 sports editors today had Middletown's unbeaten Middies, and Hamilton's twice-beaten Big Blue, both of Butler, as the state's 1-2 teams in Class A high school circles. Last fall it was Canton McKinley and Massillon, both of Stark County, at the top of the grid ratings.

The Middies were odds-on choices of the scribes to move on to their sixth state title in 13 years as 21 of the 43 picked them for the top spot and gave them a 342 to 224 point edge on the 10-9-8-35c voting basis in the poll.

The proud proteges of Paul Walker earned their top rating the hard way. Two weeks ago they dumped Hamilton 81-79, and last week they triumphed 88-59 over Columbus East, 1951 champions, thus disposing of their two closest challengers.

Columbus East, although absorbing its second straight loss after eight wins in a row, clung to third with 162 points—less than half the Middletown total. Stark County moved into the basketball act by placing Canton Timken (10-0) in fourth place, and Canton South (9-0) in fifth.

Back of them came Newark, Portsmouth, Gallipolis, Akron South and East Liverpool. Akron South is the only newcomer, taking over Alliance's ninth place in the Aviators were dumped 53-43 by Canton South.

Willshire, runner-up for the state Class B title last year, paced the more than 750 schools in that division with 93 poll points, an edge of 28 over second-place Columbus St. Mary. Only two teams in the Class B top 10 have been beaten, the group having a 119-2 record.

Gary Kessler, Willshire's All-Ohio who has grown to 6-9 since last year's tournament, has a high game count of 62 this season along with an average of 36.9. No one has come within 18 points of Willshire as the boys romped to 12 straight. New Bremen, of Auglaize County, has a good one in Jim Opperman, 6-2 junior. He's averaging 28.7, and was ill when his team lost the only one of 13 starts.

Portsmouth, in seventh place, goes against Springfield, Middletown and Hamilton in its next three outings, but Coach George Heller isn't too downcast. His Trojans whipped Springfield by 19, lost to Hamilton by 4, and Middletown by 13 the first time around, and he has a hunch they may be giant killers.

Salem - Liberty of Washington County rolled up a huge 123-62 win over Marietta St. Mary, but it wasn't too unusual because the club has a 91.1 average for eight county league contests. In the same loop Scott White of Bartlett scored 49 in an 81-79 squeaker over Lovell, boosting his average of 34.9.

Other big counts registered last week included: Grand Rapids 122, Rio Grande 109, Scioto 112, Elyria Catholic 108, Pennsville 118.

And it was only 10 years ago that Farmer defeated Worthington 36-32 for the state Class B championship, and Middletown defeated

Circleville Loses To Linden Team

WHS Lions, Other SCO Team In Action

Circleville's Tigers, who only last Friday upset the SCO League leading Wilmington Hurricane 73-68, suffered a relapse Tuesday night and went down to a 64-52 defeat at the hands of Linden-McKinley's Panthers on the Columbus school's floor.

It was the third defeat in nine games for the Tigers and only the fourth win in 11 games for the Panthers.

The Lions of WHS were the only other SCO League team in action Tuesday night. They chalked up a lop-sided 69-43 victory over Mt. Sterling's Greyhounds here.

Some of Tuesday night's basketball scores were:

Wayne Loses, 42-34, In Slow Motion Game

South Solon crept to a 42-34 win over Good Hope Thursday evening on the South Solon court.

The game got off to a normal enough start in the first period. South Solon taking a slim 12-10 lead. But then action slowed almost to a standstill in the second period and the game never really got going again. Much of the scoring in the last three quarters was on foul shots.

The loss broke Wayne's only winning streak of the season, a three game string. The Mad Anthonys now have a season record of six wins and seven losses. But four of those six wins were Fayette County League victories, giving New Holland a perfect league record and front position in the league race.

Fouls cost Good Hope the game, since both teams racked up the same number of field goals—14. But South Solon made good on 14 of 21 foul shots (66.7 percent) while the Wayne boys hit on only 6 in 15 tries (40 percent.)

Ronnie Linton, the only Good Hope player to hit double figures, was high for the losers with 13

Middletown Cagers Top Ohio High School List

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Butler County continues to reign as Ohio's basketball capital, just as Stark County does in football.

The weekly Associated Press poll of 43 sports editors today had Middletown's unbeaten Middles, and Hamilton's twice-beaten Big Blue, both of Butler, as the state's 12 teams in Class A high school circles. Last fall it was Canton McKinley and Massillon, both of Stark County, at the top of the grid ratings.

The Middles were odds-on choices of the scribes to move on to their sixth state title in 13 years as 21 of the 43 picked them for the top spot and gave them a 342 to 224 point edge on the 10-9-8-3-5 voting basis in the poll.

The proud proteges of Paul Walker earned their top rating the hard way. Two weeks ago they dumped Hamilton 81-79, and last week they triumphed 88-59 over Columbus East, 1951 champions, thus disposing of their two closest challengers.

Columbus East, although absorbing its second straight loss after eight wins in a row, clung to third with 162 points—less than half the Middletown total. Stark County moved into the basketball act by placing Canton Timken (10-0) in fourth place, and Canton South (9-0) in fifth.

Back of them came Newark, Portsmouth, Gallipolis, Akron South and East Liverpool. Akron South is the only newcomer, taking over Alliance's ninth place as the Aviators were dumped 53-43 by Canton South.

Willshire, runner-up for the state Class B title last year, paced the more than 750 schools in that division with 93 poll points, an edge of 28 over second-place Columbus St. Mary. Only two teams in the Class B top 10 have been beaten, the group having a 119-2 record.

Gary Kesler, Willshire's All-Ohio who has grown to 6-9 since last year's tournament, has a high game count of 62 this season along with an average of 36.9. No one has come within 18 points of Willshire as the boys romped to 12 straight. New Bremen of Auglaize County has a good one in Jim Opperman, 6-2 junior. He's averaging 28.7, and was ill when his team lost the only one of 13 starts.

Portsmouth, in seventh place, goes against Springfield. Middletown and Hamilton in its next three outings, but Coach George Heller isn't too downcast. His Trojans whipped Springfield by 10, lost to Hamilton by 4, and Middletown by 13 the first time around, and he has a hunch they may be giant killers.

Salem—Liberty of Washington County rolled up a huge 123-62 win over Marietta St. Mary, but it wasn't too unusual because the club has a 91.1 average for eight county league contests. In the same loop Scott White of Bartlett scored 49 in an 81-79 squeaker over Lowell, boosting his average of 34.9.

Other big counts registered last week included: Grand Rapids 122, Rio Grande 109, Scioto 112, Elyria Catholic 108, Bensenville 118.

And it was only 10 years ago that Farmer defeated Worthington 36-32 for the state Class B championship, and Middletown defeated

Circleville Loses To Linden Team

WHS Lions, Other SCO Team In Action

Circleville's Tigers, who only last Friday upset the SCO League leading Wilmington Hurricane 73-68, suffered a relapse Tuesday night and went down to a 64-32 defeat at the hands of Linden-McKinley's Panthers on the Columbus school's floor.

It was the third defeat in nine games for the Tigers and only the fourth win in 11 games for the Panthers.

The Lions of WHS were the only other SCO League team in action Tuesday night. They chalked up a lopsided 69-43 victory over Mt. Sterling's Greyhounds here.

Fouls cost Good Hope the game, since both teams racked up the same number of field goals—14. But South Solon made good on 14 of 21 foul shots (66.7 percent) while the Wayne boys hit on only 6 in 15 tries (40 percent.)

Ronnie Linton, the only Good Hope player to hit double figures, was high for the losers with 13

Houses For Sale

Modern Duplex

1 Block from Central school, this property is in excellent condition and will serve as an ideal investment or you may occupy one unit and rent the other, has nice basement and gas furnace.

You will love the large yard and flowers, and you will appreciate the exceptionally good 2 car garage.

The present owners occupy one unit as their home and need larger living quarters, reason for selling; and the asking price is certainly in line with the market value.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation
D C F D N F O X C H F X U N P (N H
F D C V K X S C K L W H) D X U E H N P X U I
L Z F D C C N K H - L Q K F X A.

Yesterday's Cryptogram: SUCCESS, THE MARK NO MOR-TAL WIT, OR SUREST HAND, CAN ALWAYS HIT — BUTLER.

Concord Group Holds Dinner

Township Council Has Annual Meeting

Over 100 members of the Concord Township Farm Bureau Council turned out Tuesday evening with their families for the annual turkey dinner and meeting.

The entire proceedings were presided over by Edwin Buck, township chairman. Following the dinner the group met in one of the classrooms to hear reports and for entertainment.

Vera Sue Palmer and Lixie Clay sang a duet, then led the group in a number of songs.

One of the high spots of the meeting was the presentation of 35-year pins to Walter Sollars and Ralph Nisley, who have been active in the Farm Bureau from its beginning in 1919.

The pins were presented by W. W. Montgomery, the extension agent who has had a share in the work of the Farm Bureau here over the past 30 years.

The report of the nominating committee, given by Maurice Sollars, found Barton Montgomery elected chairman for 1956, Frank Sollars for vice chairman and Edwin Buck for secretary.

A SINGING skit was given by the five children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pero. The five gave their number with gestures throughout.

Kenneth Bush reported on the annual Ohio Farm Bureau meeting which he attended as a delegate from Fayette County.

He emphasized the development of a program which would have the support of both parties in congress. His report showed that the soil bank plan seems to be the one on which a bi-partisan support can be secured.

A discussion period was led by Frank Sollars who opened with a report on the soil bank proposal made by Pres. Eisenhower in his message to Congress.

The meeting was closed with a solo by Nancy Marting.

Youth Is Injured During Dense Fog

Paul Boldman, 19, near Hillsboro, was injured severely and Donald Thompson, 21, Hillsboro, escaped with bruises about 7 A. M. His car plunged into a ditch, through a farm fence and landed in a field.

Boldman sustained a fractured left hand and other injuries and was brought to Memorial Hospital where he was cared for.

State Highway Patrolman D. M. Holloway checked the accident.

Verdict of $2,000 Damages Returned

After being out a little over one hour, the jury which heard the $5,000 damage case of Doris L. Winegardner against Charles L. Mustard, returned a verdict of $2,000 in favor of Mrs. Winegardner.

The case grew out of a head on collision on the Columbus Road on August 5, 1953, in which both Mrs. Winegardner and her husband, Reed M. Winegardner, were injured and hospitalized for some time.

Mustard was arrested and fined for driving while drunk and the civil actions followed.

A suit for $3,000 filed against him by Winegardner is still pending.

Mustard had failed to file an answer to Mrs. Winegardner's suit, failed to employ counsel, and after spending a little time in the courtroom during the hearing Tuesday morning, left and did not return.

Church Class Has Parley On Project

The Christian Willing Workers class of the McNair Church met at the home of Mrs. Anna Lee Ferguson for discussion of the class project. Nine members were present.

Six Counties' 4-H Leaders Meet in City

A dozen Fayette County 4-H leaders were among the 42 delegates to an all-day training session for 4-H advisors and council members held here Tuesday.

High points of the meeting were a panel discussion on the responsibilities of a council member and a general discussion of ways to boost 4-H membership.

Mrs. Jess Crago was one of six members of the panel examining council responsibilities. Each of the six counties represented at the meeting placed a person on the panel.

The discussion of increasing club membership brought up these suggestions to attract more youngsters into the program:

(1) Sign up more men as advisors. The majority of advisors now are women, meaning that boys' clubs are crowded and the clubs' men advisors have too little time to devote to each member.

(2) Enlist support from parents. Rallies for parent and children and public presentation of 4-H awards were listed as ways to get more active support from parents of prospective 4-H clubbers.

(3) Call all leaders advisors, dropping the word "assistant" from the titles of some advisors. This was expected to increase the number of persons ready to advise.

(4) Boost attendance at 4-H council meetings. Better informed leadership means better programs, the group felt.

(5) Find more projects for boys living in the city. At present, there are few projects available for non-rural boys in the program.

The six counties sending delegates to the meeting, held in the Hotel Washington, were Franklin, Pickaway, Ross, Clinton, Madison and Fayette.

Fayette County delegates were Mrs. Grove Davis, Mrs. Lloyd Mobley, Mrs. Jess Crago, Mrs. Joe F. Loudner, Mrs. Sheldon Grubb, Mrs. Mae Page, Mrs. Kenneth Horney, Carl Wilt, Frank Alexander, William Bonham and, from the Extension office here, County Agent W. W. Montgomery and Mrs. Mylene Finken, the home demonstration agent.

Final Tribute Paid Mrs. W. A. Bowdle

Funeral services were conducted at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home in New Holland at 2 P. M. Tuesday for Mrs. V. A. Bowdle by Rev. Thomas W. Taylor, pastor of the Clarksburg Methodist Church.

The minister offered prayer, read a prepared memorial tribute, quoted from the Bible and delivered the funeral sermon. He also read two hymns.

Burial was in the Brown's Chapel Cemetery near Clarksburg with six sons, Virgil, Wilby, Elm, Frank, Homer and Kenneth Bowdle, the pallbearers.

Edwin B. (Ted) Willis At Fort Leonard Wood

Edwin B. (Ted) Willis is now at Ft. Leonard Wood in Missouri taking his basic army training. He enlisted in the army early this month and was called into the service soon afterward.

A native of Washington C. H., he is the son of Mrs. Mary H. Willis. He was a senior in Washington C. H. High School when he dropped out of school and went into the armed forces.

Conservation Film Seen by Jeff Lions

Water conservation took the spotlight Tuesday evening at the Jeffersonville Lions Club clubhouse when a film in color dealing with water as a resource was shown by a representative of the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio.

The film outlined the effects of poor conservation practices and pointed out work now being done along the lines of education and conservation.

During the business session Clarence Stuckey reported on the progress of the Lions Club effort to get an additional medical doctor for the Jeffersonville community. There are two doctors now in Jeffersonville but the Lions Club members feel another is necessary.

It was announced that there will be a Lions Club night at the Cincinnati Ice Follies on March 1.

Leonard C. Allen and Ben Kennison were guests at the meeting.
